Revised 11/21/18

To Register West Virginia Bred and/or Sired

1. Must meet criteria set forth by the West Virginia Thoroughbred Development Fund (WV Code 19-23-13b)
2. Must provide a copy of the Jockey Club Papers.
3. Copy of the Affidavit of a mare foaling in West Virginia if required (non-resident mare OR mare that was not a resident mare when bred)
4. Official Bill of Sale if ownership of horse has changed since the Jockey Club papers were issued.
5. All registrations subject to review by the West Virginia Racing Commission.

To be eligible to participate in the West Virginia restricted races and to receive bonus money from the West Virginia Thoroughbred Development Fund, all horses must be registered with the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association, Inc.

FEES FOR REGISTRATION OF WV BREDS

HORSE	Reduced registration fees (member dues postmarked by 6/30)	Full price registration fees (member dues postmarked after 6/30)
Weanling/Yearling	$75.00	$200.00
Two-Year Olds and Older	$150.00	$300.00

This is a one-time registration.

Any nonmember registering a horse after June 30 will automatically be enrolled as a member of WVTBA to receive all current information and voting privileges. The first $100 of registration fees will be applied to member dues.

NOTE: It really pays to get your dues in before June 30!
